These Terms and Conditions are an integral part of the agreement between Simply Bits, LLC ("Provider") and Customer and are incorporated into the Commercial Master Order Form and Agreement ("Master Order Form"). The Master Order Form, these Terms and Conditions, and all other documents, policies, and attachments referenced in the Master Order Form, or attached hereto comprise the agreement between Provider and Customer (collectively, the "Agreement"). The following terms and conditions apply to the design, construction, provision, and use of Provider's network and related products ("Services") referenced in the Master Order Form.

1. Contract Period: These Terms and Conditions are effective when Customer signs the Master Order Form and the Master Order Form is accepted by Provider ("Effective Date"). The Contract Period commences on the Effective Date and, unless terminated in accordance with the provisions herein, will continue in effect for the Term of Contract stated in the Master Order Form. Following the expiration of the Term of Contract, Customer's contract will automatically renew on a month-to-month term at Provider's then prevailing month-to-month rates, which may be up to 125% of Customer's contracted fees for Services unless Provider receives written notice of cancellation from Customer at least 30 days in advance of the expiration of the Contract Period or a new contract for Services is signed with Provider.

2. Billing and Payment: Customer shall pay Provider all charges due under this Agreement, without deduction or setoff. All payments shall be mailed to the address stated on the bill. Bills will be issued monthly and are due immediately upon receipt. All setup fees are due before beginning the project. Furthermore, customer agrees to pay any taxes due on the Services, unless Customer provides a valid tax exemption certificate.

3. Taxes and Surcharges: In addition to the rates and charges for the Service(s), Customer shall be responsible for all local, state and federal taxes, fees and surcharges, however designated, imposed on or based upon the provision, sale, or use of the Services, excluding taxes based on Provider's net income. Customer also shall be responsible for the payment of all surcharges in effect from time to time, including but not limited to contributions Provider is required to make to the federal Universal Service Fund, as required or permitted by applicable law, regulation or tariff and/or as specified.

4. Termination: If Customer fails to pay any outstanding charges within ten (10) days after receipt of written notice from Provider of delinquency, or if Customer fails to perform or observe any other material term or condition of this Agreement within ten (10) days after receipt of written notice from Provider of such failure, Provider may terminate this Agreement, in which case, all such charges not previously due and payable under this Agreement shall be immediately due and payable (including recurring monthly charges for the remainder of the Contract period).

If Customer chooses to terminate service during the minimum Contract Period as defined in Section 1, the total sum of monthly recurring charges will be due and payable immediately upon Provider's receipt of Customer's written notice of termination.

5. Customer Responsibilities: Customer shall ensure that all Customer-provided equipment on its premises that connects to the Services will perform according to published technical specifications for such equipment and Provider's interface specifications and otherwise complies with Provider's specifications for the Services.

A. Customer shall adhere to the terms and conditions of the Acceptable Use Policy which is posted at <http://www.simplybits.com/SBAUP.html>.

B. In cases in which Customer and Provider agree to have Provider act as Customer's authorized agent for ordering and coordinating local access circuits for a Service outside of this Agreement, a separate Agency Agreement will be executed.

C. Customer is solely responsible for the content of any transmissions using the Services, or any other use of the services, by Customer or by any person or entity Customer permits to access the Services (a "User" or "Users"). Customer agrees that it and any User will not use the Services for illegal purposes, or to interfere with or disrupt other network users, network services or network equipment. Disruptions include, but are not limited to, distribution of unsolicited advertising or chain letters, propagation of computer worms and viruses, and using the network to make unauthorized entry to any other machine accessible via the network. Customer shall defend, indemnify, and hold harmless Provider from and against all liabilities and costs (including reasonable attorneys' fees) arising from any and all claims by any person based upon the content of any transmissions by Customer or any User using the Services or any other use of the Services by Customer or any User.

D. Customer shall limit access and use of the Services to its employees, students, or tenants. Customer shall not authorize any person to use the Services other than for Customer's business purposes, and shall not resell or otherwise generate income by providing access to the Services to any User.

If Customer permits Users to access the Services, Customer shall defend, indemnify, and hold harmless Provider from and against all liabilities and costs (including reasonable attorneys' fees) arising from any and all claims by or against any such Users in connection with the Services, regardless of the form of action, whether in contract, tort (including Provider's active or passive negligence), warranty, or strict liability.

E. To the extent deemed necessary by Customer, customer shall implement security procedures necessary to limit access to the Services to Customer's authorized users and shall maintain its own procedure external to the Services for reconstruction of lost or altered files, data or programs. Provider does not provide backup services for reconstruction of lost or altered files, data or programs, unless Customer separately contracts for such service.

F. Customer is responsible for establishing designated points of contact to interface with Provider.

G. Customer agrees to comply, and to cause any User to comply, with United States law with regard to the transmission of technical data which is exported from the United States using the Services.

H. Customer understands that Services provided under this Agreement (including internet use) may require registrations and related administrative reports that are public in nature. In addition, Customer agrees that Provider may include its name; IP, electronic mail, street, and other addresses; and telephone information.

Customer agrees to use its best efforts to ensure that its employees and Users of all Licensed Material hereunder comply with the terms and conditions set out in this Agreement. Customer also agrees to refrain from taking any steps, such as reverse assembly or reverse compilation, to derive a source code equivalent to the software. All Licensed Material furnished to Customer under this Agreement shall be used by Customer only to support Customer's use of the Services, shall not be reproduced or copied in whole or in part, shall not be removed from the United States, and shall be returned to Provider at the conclusion of the term of this Agreement. In addition, to the extent Licensed Material includes software or documentation provided by any third party pursuant to a sublicense from Provider ("Third Party Material"), Customer agrees, as a condition to the right to use such Third Party Material, to abide by the terms and conditions of such sublicense (including such additional end user terms and conditions as shall be required by such sublicense), and Customer shall be bound by such terms and conditions by virtue of its use of such Third Party Material following notice of such terms and conditions.

In no event shall the Space be relocated to a site outside the municipal boundaries of Tucson, Arizona. Provider and Customer will work together in good faith to minimize any disruption of Customer's services as a result of such relocation.
